PRESS RELEASE

So many options in such a small tool

Greenlee's Retractable Saw Set offers 8 features in a competitively priced product

ROCKFORD, Ill. October 3, 2005 —Greenlee's new Retractable Saw Set offers eight features in a competitively priced saw blade for electricians, plumbers, carpenter's as well as sportsmen and campers.

“We designed this Retractable Saw Set to combine quality, versatility, comfort and convenience all in one product,” said Brian Allison, product manager. “When it comes down to it, Greenlee offers the most features, with the best quality at one competitive price.”

The eight features include:

- a retractable 6-inch blade that retracts with a twist of the knob
- a jab blade and a bi-metal blade
- a quick change blade option to accommodate different applications
- a common blade design that accepts most 6-inch (or shorter) standard reciprocating saw blades
- an ergonomically designed handle that allows force to be applied both on the push and pull stroke
- blade storage for two additional blades for added convenience
- multiple cutting positions that allow the blade to be adjusted to 2-1/4-inch, 3-1/4-inch and 4-3/4-inch hard stop positions for hard sawing
- a jab blade with a sharp points and a split tooth design for a maximum cut with each stroke of the blade.
